If residing at an ISMA location, the individual will not be listed on the sponsoring officer's travel orders, but will have a Form SF-1190, Foreign Allowances Application, Grant and Report, processed authorizing ISMA.

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION:

This position is located within the Management section. The Community Liaison Office Coordinator (CLO) reports directly to the Post Management Counsellor and is responsible for a wide variety of programs and services to the official U.S. Government community at the post, as well as visiting USG personnel as appropriate. This position requires a motivated, people-oriented individual who is able to work independently.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Embassy/Community Liaison and Program development: Attends Country Team and Management meetings; acts as community liaison to AEEA (American Embassy Employees Association) Board, Housing Board and outside community organizations, such as International Women's Club of Kyiv; promotes morale and sense of community at post; organizes social, cross-cultural and community activities, with special emphasis for American employees and family members; acts as liaison between employees and schools at post, including Kyiv International School and Pechersk School International.
- Reporting requirements: Prepares semi-annual CLO activities report; coordinates yearly family member employment and childcare reports and sends them to M/FLO office in Washington; coordinates collection of data for the Office of Overseas Schools summary report; contributes information to the Post newsletter. Oversees the final editing of the newsletter, which is prepared by a contractor.
- Family Member Employment: Promotes family member employment within the Mission; sits as a non-voting member on the Family Member Employment Committee. Plans and coordinates employment workshops and connects family members with employment opportunities. Works with HR to coordinate the summer hire program.

- Arrival & Sponsor Program: Ensures new employees and family members are properly welcomed; directs mission-wide sponsor program, organizes newcomers' orientation programs and activities, updates and monitors distribution of post's orientation and welcoming material. Provides information on educational options available to employees and family members, including information on schools, education allowances, special needs resources, home schooling, distance learning, adult education opportunities and child care issues.
- Security Liaison and Crisis Management: Works with RSO to enhance security awareness at post, serves on the Embassy Emergency Action Committee and acts as information conduit between Embassy and family members in times of crisis/evacuation. Works with RSO to organize security briefings, contingency planning seminars, and town meetings to ensure information on emergency preparedness is disseminated to the community.
- Counseling and Referral: In conjunction with the Health Unit, assists family members in identifying appropriate resources for personal counseling and referral needs.
- Performs related duties as required and directs the activities of the CLO Assistant and CLO Administrative Clerk.
